Message Application:

The writer of the book of Hebrews in the sixth chapter, calls our confidence in what God has promised a, “hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure.” This promise is delivered to us by two witnesses, the Word of God and the Spirit of God.

Today as intimes passed the world challenges the validity of God’s Word. Hopefully the message today shed some assurance that our Scriptures are reliable.

We must equip ourselves with the facts about our Bible. We live in a day when simply quoting a verse for the Bible will not persuade people to trust in our Lord Jesus. It takes a commitment on our part to know why we believe the Bible.

That being said, I would like to encourage you to dig deep in information that gifted Godly men have blessed us with. To add to last week's book list I suggest you read, Why I Believe by Dr. D. James Kennedy. Also, Evidence That Demands a Verdict by Josh McDowell. They will give you the confidence to stand firm on Jesus.

Take some time to pray this week asking Jesus to increase your hunger for knowledge.

This may seem like a short application section, however, this brief introduction to godly tools can build your knowledge and give you confident faith.

Grace & Peace,

Wm. Lyons
